THE HERALD.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 20, 1884.

OUR AGENTS.

The following persons are authorized to receive subscriptions and renewals, advertising in the HERALD, orders for job work, etc., etc.:
WILL COOPER, Cincinnati.
JOHN R. BERRY, Cincinnati.
D. J. SMITH, Jr., Cincinnati.
P. S. HENRY, Cincinnati.
DR. G. R. BARNES, Cincinnati.
WILLIAM M. HAYES, Cincinnati.
J. C. HOOKER, Cincinnati.
T. B. FLOYD, Cincinnati.
R. H. BERRY, Cincinnati.
HON. R. P. HOOKER, Cincinnati.
W. A. GIBSON, Cincinnati.

PERSONALS.

Mr. S. Wayne Griffin has been ill for several days past, but not dangerous.
Mrs. Waverly Moore, of St. Mary, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wm. H. Maury.
Miss Alice Maury, of Dixon, is visiting her brother, Mr. Wm. H. Maury.
Hon. H. D. McHenry leaves for New York for Louisville, Frankfort and Washington.
J. E. Fogle, Esq., returned Monday from a trip through Indiana, taking in Louisville on his return.
Mrs. John R. Collins, of Central City, has been in town several days visiting her mother and other relatives.
Capt. J. W. Bell, of Laverne, Missouri county, Ky., was in town a few days this week, the guest of the Harford House.
Two guests of rarest beauty, two young ladies and fair—
We stepped into our office and found them hovering there.
Messrs. L. F. and J. H. Condit and W. F. Ford, of this place, left yesterday for Hartford, Conn. We wish them pleasant and profitable trip during their sojourn in the land of flowers.
C. J. Vager, Esq., the young, handsome and popular editor of the Louisville Independent, was in town Sunday and Monday shaking hands with his many friends and acquaintances here.
We had the pleasure last Friday evening of a call from Messrs. J. R. Berger and Thos. Gies, of Beaver Dam, Wis. They had in their company our subscription book for one year and gave us a nice little note for bill heads, etc., etc.
We had a call last Friday from Hiram C. Powers, Esq., of Summitville, Colorado. Mr. Powers is a native of Kentucky and of Ohio county, and was a member of the legislature of that state. He was in town on several occasions: one to leave some specimens of gold ore at our office from Summitville, Colorado, which are very fine; another was to subscribe for the HERALD; and the most important to himself to procure marriage license to marry, a notice of which appears in this issue. He was accompanied by Mr. L. T. Bunker.

—Barker took and returned back early at Anderson's Bazaar.
—Read the bill of H. Small in this issue. The Trade Palace is booming.
—Mrs. R. F. Harwick, of this place, has been quite sick for several days.
—Jack Hall, of the Boone neighborhood, was arrested last week charged with having stolen a railroad lantern and placed in jail. His trial came up before Judge Maule last Saturday, whereupon he pled guilty and was sent to jail for thirty days, which is the lightest punishment under the law for such offense.
—He was defended by Mr. J. Edwin Rowe, who was tried on Friday of last week and was continued on account of a lung injury, an account of which appeared last week, one before his honor, Judge Maule last Saturday. He was badly defended by Messrs. E. D. Walker and C. C. Westing and was charged by Messrs. H. B. Kneading, County Attorney, assisted by Henry McHenry, Jr. The jury returned a verdict of guilty and gave him a fine of $20 and ten days imprisonment in the County Jail, which was the heaviest penalty for such offense.

Hardwick & Collins.

—Herd boys and slaves at reduced prices, at Anderson's Bazaar.
—Hardwick and Collins are going to Anderson's Bazaar and will take a first class Pullman and keep the best.
—Try a pair of these ever-forerewards for your daughter, at Anderson's Bazaar.
—The little infant son of Dr. Joe T. Miller, has been quite sick for some weeks past.
—Dorcas, the wife of Robert Stewart, Harwick's clerk, Jan. 25th, 1884, a son. Dr. Hoover attending physician.
—We have received several good communications, but not in time for this issue.
—Born, January 12th, 1884, to the wife of Presley D. Taylor, Esq., a son—Oscar.

PERSONALS.

A big lot of worsted dress goods remnants at a sacrifice at Anderson's Bazaar.
—Born in Hartford, Thursday, January 24th, 1884, to the wife of Wm. H. Maury, a son.
—We invite the attention of our readers to the large displayed advertisement of H. Small in this issue.
—Miss Sarah Crow, who has been ill for some weeks past, we are glad to learn, is at this time improving.
—Hardwick and Collins are going to keep the largest and purest stock of wine whiskies and brandies ever in Harford.

A big lot of the best wearing school shoes for girls, ever offered in Harford, will be opened today, at Anderson's Bazaar.
—The Sabbath schools at this place are in a flourishing condition. We are glad to learn, is at this time improving.

—Orders left at King's stable for coal will be promptly filled.
—Married, at the residence of the bride's grandfather, Dr. J. M. Johnston, near Springfield, Thursday, January 24th, 1884, by Rev. G. J. Ross, Capt. C. H. Hale and Miss Matilda J. Johnson.
—The bride, Miss Mary, is a native of Kentucky and of Ohio county, and was a member of the legislature of that state. He was in town on several occasions: one to leave some specimens of gold ore at our office from Summitville, Colorado, which are very fine; another was to subscribe for the HERALD; and the most important to himself to procure marriage license to marry, a notice of which appears in this issue. ### Alfred T. Williams, living near Cordova, who has been ill some weeks ago by the falling of a sapling, is, we are glad to learn, improving, and will be able to return to his home in a few days.

—The letter of the steam boiler man at Boston landed last Wednesday, demanding the property about $750 and slightly injured the engineer, Charles Johnson. No one else was hurt. Mr. Lewis left next day for Louisville to get damages repaired.
—The best and only way to get a person fitted with a suit is to have your measure at Anderson's Bazaar, where you can find an immense line of the most beautiful samples at all prices from eight dollars up. Mr. Ross is sent to New York, where they are made up in the latest New York fashion, and in just two weeks from the time you make your selections you will receive the suit, which you are only expected to pay for when the fit is perfect. Try the plan once and you will never buy another ready made suit.
—One reason why Anderson's Bazaar has built up such a big trade in the clothing line is because it has the best of the best. The Bazaar has taken hold of it. We have tried both and the goods made by Devlin of New York, the best, besides we have found them much cheaper. Anderson's Bazaar are their agents here.

AN OLD CITIZEN GOES.

Death of John Midkiff.
This venerable and much respected citizen died at his residence on Locust street, Monday, January 28th, 1884, of capillary pneumonia, after a brief illness, in the 80th year of his age. For several months previous to his illness he had been in declining health, and about a week ago, was taken with a cold which resulted in his death. His remains were interred in the Harford Cemetery in the presence of a large crowd of relatives and friends, yesterday.

—We tender our warmest sympathy to the family, especially his aged wife and single daughter, who are left bereaved and fatherless.
—His remains were interred in the Harford Cemetery in the presence of a large crowd of relatives and friends, yesterday.

TERMINAL DEATH.

Thomas Brown, a Youth of Fifteen Years, Killed by a Fall from a Tree.
Thomas Brown, aged fifteen years, son of Mrs. Mary J. Brown, living on the opposite side of the creek, was killed last Sunday. The boy, in company with his brother and a friend, were tramping up a creek, and having followed some tracks to an open place, and he fell down. The trunk of the tree fell against him, and he was killed. The body was found by a neighbor, and he was taken to his home, but he died. The accident occurred about a mile and a half from Mrs. Brown's home, on the opposite side of the creek. His brother and young Williams followed him, but he was too late to escape the fall. His brother and his young companion started to carry him home, but he was too late to escape the fall. His brother and his young companion started to carry him home, but he was too late to escape the fall.

Genuine Brandy tobacco used, at Z. Waverly Moore & Son's.

—A little excitement was created in front of Williams Brothers grocery Monday by a set-to between George Small and Geo. Haddock, both of whom were carrying a large quantity of goods, and the light ended. The Marshall was promptly on hand, but the parties gave themselves up before Judge Crowe, and their trial came off yesterday, which resulted in both being fined one cent each.

Marriage License.

The following is a list of marriage licenses granted since our last report: Chas. W. Letour and Eliza J. Stewart. (Graville O. Brown and Ida May Whitrow. Joseph C. Hale and Matilda J. Atkinson. G. H. Patton and Malissa J. Hudson. David Johnson and Tennessee Tally. H. C. Powers and Maggie E. Greer. W. M. Hinton and Eliza Jernigan.

Patents Granted.

The following patents were granted to citizens of Kentucky, week ending Jan. 28, 1884, reported expressly for this paper by Jas. H. Hunter, Solicitor of Patents, Washington, D. C.: Henry H. Spears, Paris, clover seed harvester.

Vital Questions!

Ask the most eminent physician of any school, what is the best thing in the world for quieting and slaying all irritation of the nerves and curing all the nervous complaints, giving natural, childlike, refreshing sleep all day and night? And they will tell you unhesitatingly "Some form of Hops!"

Ask any or all of the prominent physicians.

What is the best and only remedy that can be relied on to cure all diseases of the kidneys and urinary organs, such as Bright's disease, diabetes, retention of urine, gonorrhea, etc., etc., giving natural, childlike, refreshing sleep all day and night? And they will tell you unhesitatingly "Some form of Hops!"

setting the Harford and Beaver Dam pike.

The Chesapeake, Ohio and S. W. R. R. is the longest in the world and carries one of Kentucky's Caves over it daily.

Beaver Dam, Jan. 28, 1884.

Everything has been cleared up with a coating of ice and frozen snow, and many and hard have been the falls of uridine, school boys and even grown-up people. Dr. W. J. Berry, of this place, has, perhaps, ridden more miles on horse-back, by far, than any man that we know of in this county, and yet never injured an injury or hurt by reason of accident, and it is to be hoped that this will not give him any permanent injury.
